Part III Statement of Program Service Accomplishments

Check if Schedule O contains a response or note to any line in this Part III

1 Briefly describe the organization's mission:

The Organization seeks to promote social reconstruction in South Africa and neighboring countries by facilitating access to credit for low-income borrowers through the provision of loan guarantees to mainstream banks and other financial institutions. As these lenders have historically been reluctant to extend credit to a sector of the population they consider un-bankable, the majority of Southern African citizens, absent the guarantees, would continue to be economically marginalized.

2 Did the organization undertake any significant program services during the year which were not listed on the prior Form 990 or 990-EZ? Yes No
If "Yes," describe these new services on Schedule O.

3 Did the organization cease conducting, or make significant changes in how it conducts, any program services? Yes No
If "Yes," describe these changes on Schedule O.

4 Describe the organization's program service accomplishments for each of its three largest program services, as measured by expenses. Section 501(c)(3) and 501(c)(4) organizations are required to report the amount of grants and allocations to others, the total expenses, and revenue, if any, for each program service reported.

4a (Code: _____) (Expenses $ 1,088,511 including grants of $ 224,058) (Revenue $ 217,787)

During the 2020 tax year, the organization had outstanding as many as 15 agreements guaranteeing commercial loans to small and growing businesses and agricultural enterprises and co-ops in the Southern Africa region. Eleven of this number supported enterprises in South Africa, our principal focus of activity; the others were in Mozambique and Malawi, two other countries that are part of the Southern African Development Community. The aggregate exposure involved in the guarantees totaled approximately $4,662,990 in the year. Because the credit facilities arranged by Shared Interest were limited to no more than 75% of the loans they backed, the guarantees ultimately unlocked total lending of sums in excess of the stated amount by virtue of the risk-sharing agreed in the contracts between local institutions and the Organization. Additionally, the guarantee program, implemented by means of the proven trans-border mechanism of standby bank letters of credit, continued to give confidence to institutions in Southern Africa other than traditional banks, such as quasi-governmental funding agencies, to put capital at risk in the sphere of small business finance and lending to economically-disenfranchised individuals. Collateralizing the letters of credit, were the US-custodied investments of the Organization, funded by loans and donations by American individuals, family foundations, (Continued on Schedule O, Statement 2)

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 11b - Once a tentative Form 990 is prepared, the Organization forwards an electronic copy to each of the 8 members of the Executive Committee of the Board of Directors. Accompanying the draft form is a narrative which includes highlights of any changes in the Form from the prior year version. Convening by conference call, the Executive Committee reviews the draft paying particular attention to governance issues and financial issues to the extent they have bearing on the preservation of the Organization's tax exempt status. Once the Committee is satisfied their input is reflected in the draft Form, a copy of the 990, and all of its schedules, is forwarded to each member of the full Board with instructions that, should they have comments, they need respond as soon as possible so that the final document is filed timely.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c - Every year, before its November annual meeting, Shared Interest distributes a conflict of interest form to each member of the Board and requires that each Board member complete and return it prior to the conclusion of the meeting. The form seeks disclosure of any conflict of interest in the context of IRS guidance to the form 990 and its Glossary defining key terms.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15 - Shared Interest's Board members, with the exception of a single non-voting officer/employee (the Organization's Executive Director), serve voluntarily and receive no compensation save for reasonable reimbursement of expenses related to their work as Board members. Every two years, the Board's Personnel Committee reviews existing salary ranges for ALL of Shared Interest's employees and sets those ranges anew based on comparability studies and data from like organizations in the New York City area. After determining the ranges, the Committee makes recommendations for adoption by the full Board and sees to it that salaries of all hires fall within policy parameters. Should a Board member, on a one-off basis, apply for compensation that could possibly be interpreted as presenting a conflict of interest, the Board will refer to its written policy document and proceed to address the issue in the manner prescribed. After disclosure of the financial interest and all material facts, and after any discussion with the interested party, s/he must leave the Board of Directors' or Committee meeting while the determination of a conflict of interest is discussed and voted upon by disinterested members. In their deliberations, the Board of Directors or committee members shall determine whether the Organization can obtain with reasonable efforts a more advantageous transaction or arrangement from a person or entity that would not give rise to a conflict. If a more advantageous transaction or arrangement is not reasonably possible under circumstances not producing a conflict of interest, the Board or any committee shall determine by majority vote of disinterested directors whether the transaction or arrangement is in the Organization's best interest, for its own benefit, and whether it is fair and reasonable and at arm's length. Only then will the applicant and the Organization sign an agreement resulting in compensation to the Board member applicant.

Form 990, Part VI, Section C, Line 19 - All of Shared Interest's governing documents, the conflict of interest policy and financial documents are available to the public at no charge for photocopying or printing. While we have not yet had anyone ask to inspect our documents in the office, we would be pleased to make these available on our premises at a mutually convenient time. While interested parties generally find our Form 990 either on our own website or that of the NYS Attorney General, Shared Interest also makes its annual report, which contains its most recent audited financials, available on its own site (and also mails and emails copies to all supporters for whom it has either street or electronic addresses).
