Part III Statement of Program Service Accomplishments

Check if Schedule O contains a response or note to any line in this Part III

1 Briefly describe the organization's mission:

The Organization seeks to promote social reconstruction in South Africa and neighboring countries by facilitating access to credit for low-income borrowers through the provision of loan guarantees to mainstream banks and other financial institutions. As these lenders have historically been reluctant to extend credit to a sector of the population they consider un-bankable, the majority of Southern African citizens, absent the guarantees, would continue to be economically marginalized.

2 Did the organization undertake any significant program services during the year which were not listed on the prior Form 990 or 990-EZ? Yes No

If "Yes," describe these new services on Schedule O.

3 Did the organization cease conducting, or make significant changes in how it conducts, any program services? Yes No

If "Yes," describe these changes on Schedule O.

4 Describe the organization's program service accomplishments for each of its three largest program services, as measured by expenses. Section 501(c)(3) and 501(c)(4) organizations are required to report the amount of grants and allocations to others, the total expenses, and revenue, if any, for each program service reported.

4a (Code: _____) (Expenses $ 1,589,997 including grants of $ 201,840) (Revenue $ 255,875)

During the 2017 tax year, the organization had outstanding as many as 19 agreements guaranteeing commercial loans to small and growing businesses, agricultural enterprises and co-ops, microfinance institutions and low-cost housing organizations in the Southern Africa region. Seventeen of this number supported enterprises in South Africa, our principal focus of activity; the others were in Mozambique and Swaziland, two countries bordering on South Africa. The aggregate exposure involved in the guarantees totaled approximately $6,490,300 in the year. Because the credit facilities arranged by Shared Interest were limited to no more than 75% of the loans they backed, the guarantees did unlock total lending of sums in excess of the stated amount by virtue of the risk-sharing agreed in the contracts between local institutions and the Organization working through its local partner, the Them bani International Guarantee Fund. Additionally, the guarantee program, implemented by means of the proven trans-border mechanism of standby bank letters of credit, continued to give confidence to institutions in Southern Africa other than traditional banks, such as quasi-governmental funding agencies and union pension funds, to put capital at risk in the sphere of small business finance and lending to economically-disenfranchised individuals. Collateralizing the letters of credit, were the US-based

Also complete this part to provide any additional information. See instructions.

Schedule F, Part I, Line 2 - The Organization requires quarterly and annual financial statements and periodic narrative reports of program accomplishments from grantees. If an independent audit was conducted of any grantee, a copy is required to be furnished to us. Additionally, the executive Director makes field visits at least once annually, but more often twice a year. In the case of the Thembani International Guarantee Fund, an entity organized under South African law as an "association not for gain," the Organization has seats on its board of directors and these US members attend the TIGF annual meeting in their capacities as Directors. Other contact is regular and sustained and conducted by mail, telephone and email, most notably by members of the Credit Committee of the filing organization's Board of Directors, the members of which regularly carry out due diligence in terms of beneficiaries proposed for loan guarantees and exercise their power to approve or disapprove support for credit applications of emerging businesses and microfinance intermediaries lodged with mainstream lending institutions in the Southern African region.

Part IV Supplemental Information. Provide the explanations required by Part I, line 2b, columns (iii) and (v); and Part III, lines 9, 9b, 10b, 15b, 15c, 16, and 17b, as applicable. Also provide any additional information. See instructions.

Schedule G, Part I, Line 2b - Relative to the custody of funds, the fundraising firm had custody of some of the funds, but not control of the use thereof. For purposes of tracking pledge fulfillment only, the firm received some of the dinner-related payments in the form of check at the firm's address. All checks, however, were payable to Shared Interest and forwarded to the Organization by overnight courier at least weekly. At no time, did the fundraiser have authority to make deposits or otherwise cash the funds.

Schedule G, Part I, Line 2b(v) - The Organization paid all fees of the fundraiser directly from its own bank account. There was never any retention or offset of funds received by the fundraiser in fulfillment of pledges. As to the amount of the professional fee reported here, the fundraiser received an additional $1,725.00 as reimbursement for expenses incurred out of pocket for travel from his location to New York City, where he supervised logistics as the event took place.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 11b - Once a tentative Form 990 is prepared, the Organization forwards an electronic copy to each of the 9 members of the Executive Committee of the Board of Directors. Accompanying the draft form is a narrative which includes highlights of any changes in the Form from the prior year version. Convening by conference call, the Executive Committee reviews the draft paying particular attention to governance issues and financial issues to the extent they have bearing on the preservation of the Organization's tax exempt status. Once the Committee is satisfied their input is reflected in the draft Form, a copy of the 990, and all of its schedules, is forwarded to each member of the full Board with instructions that, should they have comments, they need respond as soon as possible so that the final document is filed timely.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c - Every year, before its November annual meeting, Shared Interest distributes a conflict of interest form to each member of the Board and requires that each Board member complete and return it prior to the conclusion of the meeting. The form seeks disclosure of any conflict of interest in the context of IRS guidance to the form 990 and its Glossary defining key terms.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15 - Shared Interest's Board members, with the exception of a single non-voting officer/employee (the Organization's Executive Director), serve voluntarily and receive no compensation save for reasonable reimbursement of expenses related to their work as Board members. Every two years, the Board's Personnel Committee reviews existing salary ranges for ALL of Shared Interest's employees and sets those ranges anew based on comparability studies and data from like organizations in the New York City area. After determining the ranges, the Committee makes recommendations for adoption by the full Board and sees to it that salaries of all hires fall within policy parameters. Should a Board member, on a one-off basis, apply for compensation that could possibly be interpreted as presenting a conflict of interest, the Board will refer to its written policy document and proceed to address the issue in the manner prescribed. After disclosure of the financial interest and all material facts, and after any discussion with the interested party, s/he must leave the Board of Directors' or Committee meeting while the determination of a conflict of interest is discussed and voted upon by disinterested members. In their deliberations, the Board of Directors or committee members shall determine whether the Organization can obtain with reasonable efforts a more advantageous transaction or arrangement from a person or entity that would not give rise to a conflict. If a more advantageous transaction or arrangement is not reasonably possible under circumstances not producing a conflict of interest, the Board or any committee shall determine by majority vote of disinterested directors whether the transaction or arrangement is in the Organization's best interest, for its own benefit, and whether it is fair and reasonable and at arm's length. Only then will the applicant and the Organization sign an agreement resulting in compensation to the Board member applicant.

Form 990, Part VI, Section C, Line 19 - All of Shared Interest's governing documents, the conflict of interest policy and financial documents are available to the public at no charge for photocopying or printing. While we have not yet had anyone ask to inspect our documents in the office, we would be pleased to make these available on our premises at a mutually convenient time. While interested parties generally find our Form 990 either on our own website or that of the NYS Attorney General, Shared Interest also makes its annual report, which contains its most recent audited financials, available on its own site (and also mails and emails copies to all supporters for whom it has either street or electronic addresses).
